

The National Center of Competence in Research nccr – on the move aims to enhance the understanding of contemporary migration patterns. Transcending disciplines, the NCCR brings together research projects from the social sciences, economics and law. Managed from the University of Neuchâtel, the network comprises eleven universities in Switzerland.

At the University of Geneva we have an open position for a

PostDoc (80%)

Short description of vacancy: The successful applicant is expected to contribute to a research project aiming at documenting migration flows and integration using population registers under the supervision of Prof. Philippe Wanner. The start date will be 1st December 2018 (or as agreed upon).

Requirements: You have completed a doctorate in social sciences (preferably in Demography or Social Statistics), which you defended no later than five years ago (date of viva voce). Excellent knowledge of quantitative methods. Good knowledge in SAS software would be an advantage. Excellent written and oral command of English and in at least one official language of Switzerland (German, French, or Italian) is required.

Interest in interdisciplinary collaborations with PostDocs and other nccr – on the move collaborators in the framework of different NCCR events. Regular attendance of events at the University of Neuchâtel, or elsewhere in Switzerland, is expected.

Benefits: The salary will be in accordance with the regulations of the Swiss National Science Foundation. The nccr - on the move offers attractive working conditions, including support measures for researchers with childcare duties.

Employer: The position is based at the University of Geneva. The University of Geneva is an Equal Opportunities Employer. Qualified women are encouraged to apply.

Submitting application: Applications should be submitted before October 15, 2018. For additional information about the position, please contact: Philippe.Wanner@unige.ch.