The future of family support for older people

Workshop Announcement and Call for Papers (call closes 27.2.2009)

The EAPs Working Group on Demographic Change and the Support of Older People is organising a second workshop on 'The Future of Family Support for Older People' to be held in London, UK 14-15th May 2009 in collaboration with the UK Economic and Social Research Council 'Modelling Ageing Populations to 2030' programme. We are now calling for contributed papers/presentations, these should be of 20-30 minutes in length and may concern any aspect of the topic, whether relevant to needs for or supply of support; a clear focus on future trends, including results from modelling, is preferred. The previous workshop resulted in two journal special issues, and the possibility of producing another publication from this event will be discussed, please indicate views on this. Participation in the workshop is also open to those who do not wish to give a paper. Financial basis: Meeting rooms and refreshments, including lunch on May 15th, will be provided but participants will be responsible for their own travel and accommodation costs.

Provisional programme:

Thursday May 14th 4-6 p.m. MAP2030 open seminar followed by reception.

'A future care gap? Informal care for older people by their adult children:
Projections of demand and supply in England' Linda Pickard, London School of Economics

'Households and later life transitions: Projections and implication' Emily Grundy & Sanna Read, London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine.

Friday May 15th 10.00 a.m. to 4p.m. Workshop presentations

4p.m. – 5p.m. Future plans.
